

Newjoco Production

Feature Film

Are you an independent filmmaker looking for the resources to get your feature or short film off the pre-production ground? Or are you a small studio looking to partner with a resourceful team whose creativity and drive are endless to produce the best piece of cinema? This is what we do above and beyond.

TV / Network

Newjoco was originally formed as a production company for the narrative format. Do you have a script that you're dying to produce but don't know how to get that started? Are you looking for writers or a production team to film your pilot? This is your stop.

WebSeries

With the increased popularity of online webseries, a lot of our producers within Newjoco have produced shows for this medium, so our experience in this field is boundless. But because it is so easy to upload your own content, amateurs and semi-pro's have saturated the market with sub-par work. Bring the Newjoco team in for your next series for that professional punch.
